

The image displays a grid of 10 rows of ancient Phoenician characters, arranged in two columns. Each character is a thick, black, stylized outline. The first column contains characters resembling 'aleph', 'beth', 'gimel', 'daleth', 'zayin', 'taw', 'yodh', 'waw', 'shin', and 'qoph'. The second column contains characters resembling 'lamed', 'mem', 'nun', 'samekh', 'ayin', 'resh', 'teth', 'pe', 'tsade', and 'kaph'. The characters are written on a sheet of paper with faint horizontal ruling lines.